For those feeling fear, anxiety and grief in this season: Fear of the deadly disease, anxiety because none of us knows what is going to happen in the world around us as this disease unfolds, and grief over the sense of security that we have all lost. The Hope the Church proclaims today in the midst of crisis is the same Hope and security in Jesus Christ that we have proclaimed for generations: that "God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, so that whoever believes in him should not perish eternally but have everlasting life." If you're struggling or hurting today, or if you have needs, the churches are here to help you all that we can. So if you need practical help today, reach out and ask someone. And reach out to a friend or neighbor who's hurting if you can help them. Sometimes helping someone else in need can be a way to see our
